My dear Dr. Green:-

It has been some time since I have had the pleasure of writing you. As you may know, I have accepted the position of Curator here in New York at The American Numismatic Society.

You may remember that you once told me that you had stored in the cellar various back volumes of the American Journal of Numismatics. The Society here is now the publisher of the Journal, and we have a quantity of the back volumes, and we are getting together all others we can procure so that they will be in one place. If you are disposed to sell those you have, we might be able to take these off your hands at a price. If you could send us a list of what volumes you have, and the number of copies of each volume, we can then take up the matter with you further.

I remain,

Very sincerely,
